Notices on the bulletin board:

- Top left: A notice with a blue header and text, partially obscured.
- Top center: A map of a geographical area.
- Top right: A yellow notice titled "RABIES WARNING / ADVERTENCIA POR RABIA".
- Middle left: A green notice with a white header.
- Middle center: A white notice with a blue header.
- Middle right: A pink notice titled "BATHING AND GATHERINGS PROHIBITED".

ENOUGH

MOVING FORWARD

WE NEED EMPATHY TOGETHER WE ARE NOT ALONE

EMPTINESS
So walking down 3rd Ave, in front of Claw Daddy's, around 6:00 PM, a woman pushing a stroller suddenly stops in front of me and makes a series of rapid chopping motion in the air, and says, "Sushi Master." I am an innocent man in my 50s. It's nothing compared to the more blatantly pejorative insults I endured the last two years, but felt annoyed just the same.

BEAUTIFUL THE WHY AGENT WINE

TOGETHER I STAYED EYES ARE

NOT US

THIS IS A FEARFUL CHINKS

About Without Mr For

THANK YOU!

KAF's 2023 SDSS programs held in Northern Manhattan, the South Bronx, and Queens are supported, in part, by an award of Grants for Art Projects from the National Endowment for the Arts; and public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in Partnership with the City Council; and are made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature. The 2023 programs are also made possible in part with funding from the Coalition for Asian American Children and Families (CACF). WQXR is the media partner of Korea Art Forum presenting Shared Dialogue, Shared Space. Special thanks to our community partners, the South Bronx Unite and MInKwon Center for Community Action, the NYC Department of Parks & Recreation, and NYC Council Members Vickie Paladino, Sandra Ung, and Julie Won for supporting KAF's projects.
